FROM THE PASTOR

Holy Week begins today with Palm Sunday. It is the holiest time of the liturgical year. During this week we celebrate the redemptive work of Christ – His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. In order to help you to profit spiritually from this week, find below some suggestions:

1. If you haven't yet gone to confession this Lent, make the time to do so. Even if you are not conscious of having committed any mortal sins since your last good confession, a well-made confession will better dispose you to receive the graces Our Lord wants to give you at this time.
2. Go to Mass and receive Holy Communion on the days it is possible to do so.
 - On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday the Masses are at the regularly scheduled times. See elsewhere in the bulletin for the rest of the Holy Week schedule.
3. If you have been negligent in keeping your Lenten resolutions, make an extra effort to keep them this week.
4. Keep electronic entertainment to a minimum – internet, TV, video games, etc.
5. Do a little fasting, and/or abstain from some favorite food.

Note: Good Friday is a day of fasting for those between the ages of 18 and the completion of their 59th birthday. Abstinence from meat is obligatory on that day for all of those 14 and older.

6. Do practice religious devotions: make the Stations of the Cross (if you can't do it in church, do it at home), meditate especially on the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, read the story of the Passion of Our Lord from any one of the Gospels, spend some time in private prayer before Our Eucharistic Lord, etc.
7. Practice greater kindness and patience with the people you live with and work with. Good deeds and acts of charity are always in order. Try to be mindful of the poor in some concrete way.

Have a blessed Holy Week!
